HUMAN TRAFFICKING POLICY

KLH strictly prohibits employees, subcontractors, subcontractor employees, and agents from engaging in human trafficking-related activities. These activities include engaging in sex trafficking, procuring commercial sex acts (even if this practice is legal in the jurisdiction where it transpires), using force, fraud, or coercion to subject a person to involuntary servitude, or obtaining labor from a person by threats of serious harm to that person or another person, among others.

GENERAL

These Conditions do not derogate from KLH's statutory and common law rights and are in addition to those rights, and not in substitution for them. A reference to a statutory provision includes a reference to the statutory provision as modified or reenacted or both from time to time and any subordinate legislation made under the statutory provision. A failure by KLH to exercise or a delay in exercising a right or remedy provided by these Conditions or by law does not constitute a waiver of the right or remedy or a waiver of other rights or remedies. No single or partial exercise of a right or remedy provided by these Conditions or by law by KLH prevents further exercise of the right or remedy or the exercise of another right or remedy. The Supplier and KLH are independent contractors; neither is an agent or employee of the other or has any authority to assume or create any obligation or liability of any kind on behalf of the other. Any provision of the Order that is invalid or unenforceable under applicable laws with respect to a particular party or circumstance will be severed from this Order with respect to such party or circumstances without invalidating the remainder of this Order or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances.

GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Order is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Wisconsin, USA, including the Wisconsin Uniform Commercial Code. To the extent this Order involves the performance of services, such services shall be deemed to be "Goods" within the meaning of the Wisconsin Uniform Commercial Code. KLH and the Supplier irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Wisconsin and the federal courts situated in the State of Wisconsin, in connection with any action brought by either party to enforce the provisions of this Order, to recover damage or other relief for breach or default under this Order, or otherwise arising under or by reason of this Order. The Order constitutes the entire integrated agreement between the Supplier and KLH for the Goods and/or Services purchased hereunder and supersedes all prior written or oral understandings or agreements relating to the same. In the event of conflict between these Conditions and the terms on the face hereof, the terms on the face hereof shall govern. No modification of this Order will be binding on KLH unless set forth in an agreement specifically referencing this Order and signed by an authorized agent of KLH.
